Royalty to Mix With Wishing Wells For Nativity Carnival

Kings and queens, white elephants, and wishing wells for the annual Nativity School Carnival on Wednesday, May 9, are keeping officers of the Mothers' club and school room mothers extra busy these days.

The Carnival will be held at Nativity Catholic school grounds, 2371 West Carson, beginning at noon and concluding with the crowning of king and queen about 8:30 p.m.

Officers serving as over-all chairmen of the event are: Mesdames N. P. Giacquinto, David Hughes, Leonard Rock and Murray L. Rudnick.

In charge of the various booths are room mothers: Mesdames Lloyd Landerville, Jack N. Dabbs, Donald Franklin, J. F. Carlin, Thomas Andreoli, Virgil Lundeen, Elles E. Cook and Thomas Eager.

Other chairmen with special assignments are: Mrs. Leroy Armstrong, in charge of the king and queen contest, and Mrs. Frank Tapia who is responsible for the food booth.

Staged as the major ways and means project of Nativity Mothers' club, this event will offer typical carnival games for the enjoyment of youngsters and grown-ups, too: baseball throw, wishing well, balloon and dart, and movies.

Other booths will offer home-made articles for sale: glassware, white elephant sale, and "Parcel Post" packages sent by doting grandparents and other relatives who live at a distance.

Crowning of the king and queen who will be first grade students at Nativity school, will climax the day's activities.

Hot food, including Spanish

Lovely Bride

Mrs. Gary Knuttilla, the former Miss Joan Marie Derouin, was wed at St. Margaret Mary's Church in Lomita on Saturday, April 28.—Stanfords Photo.

Joan Marie Derouin Weds Gary Knuttilla

Reflecting the gaiety of Spring sunlight, the charm of a Dresden figurine, and the dignity of youth, was Miss Joan Marie Derouin when she became the bride of Gary Knuttilla, on Saturday, April 28, at St. Margaret Mary's church.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Derouin of 1643 West 25th st., Harbor City. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. August Knuttilla of 1842 West 15th st., Lomita.

The bride was enchanting in a gown of pale blue taffeta chintilly lace, and tulle. The bodice of lace was styled with a bateau neckline edged with a narrow ruching of pleated tulle and a delicate etching of pearls outlining the pattern of the lace.

The billowing skirt of tulle trimmed with bands of val lace floated down to a chapel length train. Her veil fell from a Julianne cap edged in pearls, and she carried white orchids.

Miss Darlene Derouin, sister of the bride, was the maid of honor. She wore a pink rose gown and carried a matching nosegay.

Miss Soderberg and Miss Etta Lou Pflieger were lovely in frothy lavender gowns.

The flower girl, Catharine Ann Derouin, sister of the bride, wore a frock of pink nylon dot-best man. Ushers were Dale Hall, brother of the groom; John Crocker, cousin of the bride, and young Jerry Wayne Pearson.

Mrs. Loraine Pearson, the bride's aunt, was the soloist. She was accompanied by Mrs. Ed Smith.

The bride's mother chose a navy faille ensemble with white accessories and the sister of the groom wore a navy and white dress with a navy stole and white accessories. Both wore pink carnation corsages.

Upon their return they will reside at 536 West 109th st., Los Angeles.
